If she wants to participate as a voting member then her meeting location needs to be placed on the agenda as a remote meeting site, the agenda needs to be posted at that location 24 hours in advance and the location needs to be accessible to the public for any public comment at that location (in the unlikely event that someone wants to do public comment from that location).

I understand that Delia may want to participate remotely as well. She said she would notify us today if she did. Same rules for her location.

Thanks Richard.

Harit
